Daily wage of tea-garden workers

826. SHRI DRUPAD BORGOHAIN: Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state:

(a) the present daily wage of permanent tea-garden workers in different States;

(b) whether the Government have any plan to raise the minimum wage of tea-garden workers in view of present price escalation; and

(c) whether Government would take steps to provide wages to workers in holidays like Sundays?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT (SHRI MUNI LALL) : (a) A statement indicating minimum rates of wages in the schedule employment of 'Tea-Plantation' in various States is enclosed (See below).

(b) The State Governments are the appropriate Governments for fixation/revision of minimum wages for tea-garden workers. The minimum wages are inclusive of Variable Dearness Allowance, wherever provision exists, which is linked to Consumer Price Index.

(c) The Plantation Labour Act, 1951 deals with working hours in any plantation. According to the provisions of this law no adult worker shall be required or allowed to work in excess of forty-eight hours in any week or for more than 9 hours in any day. In case a worker is made to work for more than 9 hours in a day or 48 hours in a week, he/she is entitled to receive wages twice the rates of ordinary wages.
